

Tribhuvan University
Institute of Science and Technology
E-Governance (CSC366)
2076

Differentiate between e-Government and e-Governance. What are the various stages of E-governance?

E-Government refers to the use of ICT by government to provide services... (detailed explanation with differences, stages: information, interaction, transaction, transformation, integration).

Explain with example of maturity model of e-governance.

The maturity model describes the evolutionary stages of e-Governance implementation... (elaborate on stages with examples).

Explain the components of data warehouse. What are the applications of data mining in e-Governance in the context of Nepal.

Data warehouse integrates data from multiple sources... Applications in Nepal include census data, agriculture, health, etc.